On opening night of the 2016 season, the Crowley High School football program will recognize one of the greatest players to ever wear the purple and white.

Gary Reasons was a standout multi-sport athlete for the Eagles, earning 13 varsity letters from 1976-80. He was an all-region linebacker and First Team All-State tight end as a senior.

He earned a scholarship to play linebacker at Northwestern State University in Louisiana, where he was the first three-time All American in Division 1-AA (FCS) history. In 1996, he was among the inaugural class of small school college players inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame.

His nine-year NFL career included highlights such as:

- Selected to the NFL All Rookie Team in 1984
- Selected to the All Madden and All NFL Teams in 1989
- Member of the New York Giants teams that won victories in Super Bowls XXI and XXV

Mark your calendars and plan to be in the stands early to support Gary Reasons and watch the Eagles open the 2016 season against Dunbar High School. For ticket information, visit www.crowleyisdtx.org/athletics.
