

Supporting Veterans' Children through Transitions

Register
Today!

Developed by the Military Child Education Coalition
Provided by a generous grant from the USAA Educational Foundation

Developed by MCEC, this one-day course enables youth-serving educators, professionals, and parents to support the unique transitional issues children face when their parents separate from the military. The course also addresses the challenges of children whose parents have died or experienced combat-related injuries and illnesses. Participants will develop strategies and resources to help these children thrive.
